TIPS FOR YOUR TRIP

to Chiloé Island

Traveling in your own vehicle

If you're driving to Refugia Chiloé in your own car, you can refuel in Dalcahue or Castro.

Both towns offer basic services such as gas stations, pharmacies, supermarkets, and clothing stores. You'll also find primary healthcare services and craft centers, where you can purchase Chiloé products and souvenirs.

The route to the hotel is not difficult, but we recommend adhering to speed limits, avoiding risky maneuvers, and paying close attention to the road.

Excursions with external companies

If you book excursions with external companies, we kindly ask that you leave the departure and return details at the reception, along with the name and contact information of the company in charge. This way, we know when to expect you, or how to locate you in case of an emergency.

If you prefer to explore on your own, our excursions team is always available to suggest routes or activities you can enjoy independently.

Weather

The weather in Chiloé can change quickly. We recommend always having a waterproof windbreaker and appropriate footwear for the activity you'll be doing.

Church Route

Chiloé is renowned for its churches, unique architectural landmarks scattered across the island. Recognized as UNESCO World Heritage Sites, these churches are constructed from wood using shipbuilding techniques. Some of the oldest date back to the 18th century, when Jesuit priests traveled the island on an evangelizing mission.

On your way to and from the hotel, you'll pass close to some of these churches. If you'd like to take a slight detour, you can visit:

- Iglesia San Francisco, Castro
- Iglesia de Nuestra Señora de los Dolores, Dalcahue
- Iglesia de Santa María, Rilán
- Iglesia San Juan Bautista, Calén
